NINE MORE CARS OF GRAVENSTEINS TO BE SHIPPED TO BUENOS AYRES

Now, then, what do you think of this, Sonoma Valley people? Nine more carloads of Gravenstein apples have been bought up this week in this district by Purchasing Agent S. A. Griffith, of Vineburg, representative of the Welbanks Commission House, San Francisco. Last week, we reported the purchase and shipment of six carloads of Gravensteins to Wagner & Son, Buenos Ayres.

The nine additional cars which leave Vineburg next week are also consigned to Wagner & Son, of Buenos Ayres, making a total shipment of fifteen carloads of Gravenstein apples to South America.

Purchasing Agent Griffith informs us that the apples secured by him within the week were the product of the following fine orchards: John Wadsworth, Lowell Brothers, G. T. Seipp J. C. Schofner, E. M. Cutter, H. Rubke, T. E. Cone, R. A. Vernon (Brubeck farm) C. Soderberg, E. Rochat Chas. Cutter, K. Griffith, J. Fernandez, J. Schumacher, W. J. Clements, J. H. Coops and S. Lydiard.

Thursday morning, Agent Griffith went to San Francisco on business connected with the big deal, and will not return until today.

Sonoma Valley, or to state it more fairly, thriving, progressive Vineburg, is assuredly sending out the best and most convincing of arguments as to the resources and possibilities of this section.

ATTRACTIVE SCHOOL HOUSE AT EL VERANO

The school house in El Verano presents a splendid appearance since the completion of its remodelling under the able supervision of Contractor Kenneth Weaver, and is in readiness for the opening of school this month. E. Marzo and his force of men, who painted the building, added greatly to its attractive appearance.

PROBATION OFFICER PLOVER REPORTS MANY CASES FOR THE LAST MONTH

At the meeting of the County Probation Committee, held Monday of this week, Chairman Chas. D. Barnett presided and Mrs. Robert Potter Hill, of Eldridge, was at the secretary's desk.

Probation Officer Plover's report for the month showed that a large number of cases had been dealt with. Reports have shown that by taking up the cases of juvenile offenders in the manner done by the Juvenile Court, the taxpayers are saved great expense yearly, not only in this county but all over the State. And, as the Santa Rosa Press Democrat aptly remarks, when it comes to saving boys and girls from lives of crime, the work cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, but rather in human souls and the moulding of useful lives.

The work of the Juvenile Court in this county has grown to such an extent, owing to its scope, and the general probation work that deals with older offenders, who are given probation in the Superior Courts, has increased to such an extent as to make the appointment of an assistant necessary.

Mrs. Ora Parrish, formerly matron of the Detention Home at Santa Rosa, was selected as assistant probation officer in this county, it having been thought necessary to have a woman to handle many of the cases that come up in which women and young girls figure particularly. The appointment of Mrs. Parrish was ratified by Judge Emmet Seawell.

PALATIAL PIG PEN

A fine pig pen built entirely of concrete with a patented waterproof finish has just been completed at Wake Robin Lodge, the Jack London Ranch, near Glen Ellen. Seventeen individual stalls, with a private feeding yard astached to each, was constructed. The breeding of blooded hogs receives much attention from the noted author.

SUSPECT ARRESTED FOR COMPLICITY IN ROBBERY OF POSTMASTER

Sonoma Valley residents are awaiting with unbated interest developments in the burglarizing of the home of Postmaster A. P. Ringressy at Fetters' Springs, last Saturday night, when the strong box in which Postmaster Ringressy kept post office funds and his personal cash was taken. The box contained approximately $300 of Ringressy coin and about $180 belonging to the department.

A number of stamps, blank postal orders, etc., which were in the box, were discovered later in a near-by cottage.

Near the window through which entrance was undoubtedly gained, the foetprints of a man and a woman were discovered, and on this suggestive evidence the officers are working.

Strong evidence has already been secured, and momentarily it is believed the last link in the chain will have been forged.

Jack Welch, who was a former temporary resident of this valley, and is suspected of complicity in the robbery, has been taken into custody.

Discussing the arrest of Welch, the Press Democrat says:

Deputy Sheriff Jack Murray of Sonoma landed Jack Welch, a San Francisco man, in the county jail here Wednesday morning. A complaint was sworn to in Justice of the Peace Vaughan's court charging him with the burglary of the home of Postmaster A. P. Ringressy, adjoining the grocery and postoffice at Fetter's Springs last Saturday night, when over $500 belonging to Ringressy, and money belonging to the government, was taken.

Welch assumed a sullen attitude when brought into court, and said he was not going to talk. He was quite sure, however, that he had nothing to do with the robbery. He was in company with the men and women now in jail here who were arrested as "blind piggers" and for having opium in their possession and incidentally suspected, some of them at least, of having been connected with the robbery.

Welch is said to have not borne a particularly good reputation in the haunts where he can be found in San Francisco. Justice Vaughan will give him a preliminary examination. His bail bond was fixed at $1,500. Welch was expecting a friend up from San Francisco to put up bail for him.

The officers learned that Welch left El Verano on an early train Sunday morning, some hours after the robbery of the Ringressy place, and Deputy Sheriff Murray was sent to the metropolis to locate him, which he did with the assistance of a San Francisco policeman.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO ORGANIZE PARLOR N. D. G. W. IN SONOMA CITY

Sonoma City is soon to number among its progressive organizations a Parlor of Native Daughters of the Golden West--that is, the institution of the order will be effected if the matrons and maids of this valley, who are native born Californians are sufficiently enthusiastic and imbued with the spirit of the West to wish to become links in the great sisterhood.

That the founding of a branch of the fraternity in this city has been so long delayed is somewhat surprising. Sonoma, the seat of early government, so rich in the State's history, above all other Californian cities, should most certainly boast strongly flourishing, harmonious organizations of men and women whose proud privilege it is to claim the grandest State in all these United States as their birthplace.

Sonoma Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, is, we believe, in point of numbers, the strongest lodge in town. Nearly all of the representative young men of this valley have united with the order, and at the rate the membership is increasing, it will not be long until ever native son of this glorious Queen State of the West, who are residents of this valley, will have affiliated with the local brotherhood.

Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons has interested itself in the organization of the subordinate lodge to the extent that Messrs. Charles Groskopf and Fred Helberg were named as a committee to secure the number of names necessary on an application to obtain a charter. Mr. Groskopf is away during the week, but telephone communication with Mr. Helberg is easily obtainable, and those who desire to become members of Sonoma Parlor of Native Daughters are urged to confer with Mr. Helberg as soon as possible.

RETURNS FROM HUNT

Mervyn Bish has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bish, at Madrone Vineyard, after an eight days' sojourn in Mendocino County, visiting relatives and endeavoring to get some venison. He reports having had the time of his life.

LOCAL NINE MEETS DEFEAT AT HANDS OF VISITING BALL TEAM SUNDAY

Sonoma lost to the California Optical Ball Team, of San Francisco, last Sunday, by the score of 19 to 7.

Sonoma did not have its regular line-up in the field, to which fact is to be attributed the very unequal score.

Diamond Dust

A feature of the game were the great fielding stunts pulled off by the visitors. The Optical boys sure did give their pitcher excellent support.

Fritz Helberg started to pitch for Sonoma, but Fritz had a bad day and could not get started, so Bob LaTorres and Ralph Evans pitched the last four innings.

Bud Kearns, Kenwood boy, was behind the bat for Sonoma. Bud caught a good game.

Henry Brown played right field for the home team, and gave a good account of himself. Henry caught two line drives, got one hit, stole two bases and scored a run—a fine day's work, truly, for Henry!

LaTorres, Evans and Helberg done the heavy hitting for Sonoma, each getting three safe hits.

Harry Bird, veteran on the diamond, played third base for Sonoma. Harry had his eye on the pill, getting a nice hit.

Dutch Andrieux played a great game in center field, and grabbed everything that came near him.

The Sonoma team missed the services of Short-Stop Lindley and Second Baseman Rahwler, last Sunday, but tomorrow these two stars will be back in the line-up and then watch the Sonoma boys play ball.

Sonoma will play a fast team from San Francisco tomorrow afternoon, August 8th—the Noe Valley Merchant's Club—game to be called at 2:15 P. M. See the posters.

AID WILL MEET

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will be entertained in the Church Parlors on Thursday, August 12th. It is hoped that everyone will make an effort to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

"RED" MCKNIGHT IS SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS IN THE COUNTY JAIL

"Red" McKnight muts serve six months in the county jail for having had intoxicants among the "soft drinks" at his place of business.

This was the sentence imposed upon McKnight, Wednesday, by Justice of the Peace Marvin T. Vaughan of Santa Rosa.

The charge of being a "blind pigger" was preferred against McKnight on the finding of the liquors by Deputy Sheriffs Phil Varner, Don McIntosh and Jack Murray during the search of these officers, Saturday night, for evidences of guilt leading to the arrest of the burglar of the Fetters' Springs' post office.

McKnight pleaded that the intoxicants were for the personal use of himself and partner "Billy" Peru, but Justice Vaughan thought differently.

McKnight has been in this valley but a few months, having taken the Parente place, upon which the ban had long been placed and the licence remoked. This fact, coupled with that of McKnight's having borne a questionable reputation in San Francisco led to the search of his business premises, with the result as stated above.

1916 MAXWELL ANNOUNCEMENT

The announcement of the 1916 Maxwell, which appeared in last Sunday's Examiner, has created a great deal of interest among the local prospective purchasers.

The price of $740 f. o. b. Sonoma, includes such mechanical features as electric starter and lights, demountable rims, unit power plant, three-fourths floating axle, and many other of the latest improvements.

A demonstrator is expected in Sonoma shortly, when everyone will be able to look this car over.

JAMES MAFFEI TO JOIN THE ARMY OF BENEDICTS AUGUST 8TH

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon, Sonoma's prominent young business man, James Maffei, of the well-known firm of Nichelini & Maffei, will lead to the altar Miss Zelda Devincenzi, of San Francisco.

The nuptials will be celebrated at one o'clock in the handsome new church of St. Peter and St. Paul. The attractive bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Mary Devincenzi, as maid of honor, and Olivo Maffei will assist the groom as best man. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding feast will be served.

The newly-wedded twain will return to Sonoma early next week, the press of business requiring the attention of Mr. Maffei rendering it necessary to postpone the bridal trip until September.

The coming benedict has elegantly furnished one of the Mosso bungalows, on the Sonoma Grove Tract, for the reception of his fair bride.

"Jim" is being overwhelmed with the good wishes of his friends throughout the valley, and along with the rest, the Index-Tribune tosses its matrimonial slipper for good luck. "Jim" is well worthy of all the brightest and best in life, add we trust it will come to him and his.

FURNITURE STORE VERY ATTRACTIVE

"Some class to Jack Picetti!" To be sure there is! There's class and progressiveness, enterprise and public spirit, and we hope and believe that the people of town and valley realize and appreciate the fact to such an extent that the business of the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company will increase in its elegant new quarters. No mistake as to where this establishment is now located, owing to the brilliant elcctric sign put up by the California Telephone and Lighting Company and the handsome display of furniture to be seen in and through the mammoth show windows.

Some "Twenty Years Ago" in Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX TRIBUNE OF AUGUST 11, 1895.)

Politics, a weekly paper of Santa Rosa, has turned up its toes to the daisies. Peace to its ashes.

Miss Louisa Rufus and her sister, Mrs. Wicker, of San Francisco, came up from the above place on Saturday evening's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rubke of Schellville had their home brightened last Saturday by the arrival of a baby girl.

F. W. Russell has rented the cottage on the corner of Napa and Second-street East, where his children under the care of a governess will reside.

Granville Harris of this place, according to the Santa Rosa Democrat is aspiring for the Republican nomination of assessor.

George Pieratt, aged thirteen years killed a rattlesnake in Nun's Canyon last Sunday that had fourteen rattles and a button.

Messrs. J Gundlach & Co., and C. Dresel & Co, of this valley, have been awarded first premium for their wines by the judges of awards of the Midwinter Fair.

District Deputy Ungewitter of Guerneville installed the newly-elected officers of Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, N. S. G. W., Monday evening.

Miss Lydia and Freda Wegna gave a very pleasant ice cream party to a few of their girl friends Tuesday afternoon.

The Glen Ellen public school opened last Monday, with Mrs. May Floyd as teacher and an attendance of thirty children.

The following were elected delegates to the Democratic Convention at the primaries last Thursday: Sonoma, George W. Sparks and M. Muldry; San Luis, Robt. Howe and E. E, Griffith; Glen Ellen, N. R. Hansen and C. S. Wilson; Agua Caliente, J. E. Kearney.

At the very best the life of the country editor is anything but sunshine and roses. He has to submit to having his papor called the "bladder;" is accused of trying to run the town, has frequently to take his pay out in cabbages, hay and wood and occasionally an old subscriber drops into his sanctum and nearly frightens the poor devil to death by exclaiming, "Stop my paper!" The country editor is however, often given credit by his home people for his efforts in their behalf, which more than compensates him for the sarcastic things said about him by those who fear his independence and have not the brains to appreciate his calling.

DEATH OF REVEREND FATHER J. LEAHY BRINGS SORROW TO SONOMA

The announcement of the death of Rev. Father Jeremiah Leahy, pastor of St Vincent's Church, of Petaluma, brought profound sorrow to the Sonoma Valley, where he was intensely beloved by youth and age of all classes and of all creeds.

Death came suddenly to the revered priest, Thursday night, at Duncan Spridgs, whither he had gone for his health.

During his ten years of parochial work in this parish, as pastor of the St. Francis Church of Sonoma and St. Mary's Church of Glen Ellen, Father Leahy endeared himself to all who knew him. His was a saintly life, of rare humility and simplicity, and characterized by the noblest of works and broadest of charities.

EFFORTS APPRECIATED

Through the columns of the Index-Tribune, Mrs. R. J. Snyder and Messrs. Montaldo & Falco desire to express their grateful appreciation to the many citizens of El Verano and of the Sonoma Valley for the prompt and effectual service rendered by them in extinguishing the grass fire on their premises, Wednesday.

The fire, which originated from wood blasting, swept over fifty acres of pasturage, besides destroying considerable fencing. Had it not been for the speedy, effective efforts of the volunteer firemen, the flames would have spread to one hundred and fifty acres of stacked grain, the destruction of which would have entailed a very heavy loss.

Judgment for the City Against Sonoma Valley Water Company

An opinion of importance to the people of the City of Sonoma was handed down by Judge Seawell in the Superior Court on Wednesday. It was that giving judgment for the city and restraining the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power Company from so operating a big pump to the extent that it diminishes the supply from the city's artesian wells, long in use prior to the sinking of the defendant's wells. An injunction issues against the defendant.

An important opinion was handed down in the Superior Court on Wednesday by Judge Seawell involving water rights in the City of Sonoma. The title of the suit was "The City of Sonoma vs. The Sonoma Water, Light & Power Company.

The action was brought some time ago by plaintiffs to enjoin defendants from pumping water to their injury from a well rently sunk by defendant within the immediate vicinity of similar and more ancient wells operated by the city plaintiffs.

The wells of Mary Wahl and Enrico Eroldi were sunk in the year 1890. The wells maintained by the city are sunk in a public thoroughfare, and are artesian in character. Two were bored in 1903, since which time the water therefrom has been used for flushing sewers, irrigating the city's plaza, and for other useful purposes.

Defendant's well was bored in 1913. Active operation of the same began in the early part of June of that year. The defendant is a public service corporation, supplying villages situate in the Sonoma Valley with water. All of said wells are on property situated within the limits of the City of Sonoma.

One of the serious questions involved in the suit, the Court says, was whether the lowering of the water plane underlying the surface, immediately beneath the lands upon which the wells are operated was caused by three consecutive dry seasons, or by excessive drawing away of water by defendant to be used in supplying its customers in the immediate vicinity and also in localities without the City of Sonoma.

The Court says that the underlying water plane was not affected until the defendant commenced the constant operation of its pump, which had a capacity of 3,500 or 4,000 gallons per hour. It was then that the city's well was lowered and they were deprived of its full and accustomed use for domestic and household purposes. At times when the pumping by defendant ceased there was a notable raising of the water in the city's well.

"Plaintiffs were the first appropriators, if such term can be used, and their uses of the waters for the purposes set out in the complaint was known to the defendant. * * *

"The constant operation of defendant's pump, as during the dry season of 1913, would doubtless work such irreparable injury to plaintiff as would entitle them to equitable relief.

"Defendant is not in a position to challenge the right of the City of Sonoma to use water from the wells it has bored into the soil which forms a part of a public street. The owner of the fee is the only person who could be heard to complain."

The Court makes reference to the leading cases on the subject and continues:

"The Court is further of the opinion that defendant should be enjoined from pumping water from its well in such quantities as to perceptibly lower the subterranean water plane, thereby interfering with the reasonable use of said subterranean waters as deny to plaintiffs access thereto for and in the uses shown by the evidence.

"The view thus taken of the situation by the Court renders the cross-complaint unnecessary. Perhaps the answer contains the essential matters of the cross-complaint. The motion to file a cross-complaint is therefore denied.

"The motion for a non-suit is also denied.

"All objections to the introduction of testimony on which the ruling was reserved, if any, are hereby overruled. All motions to strike out testimony on which a ruling was reserved, if any, are hereby, denied.

Judge Seawell is also of the opinion that the rights of the parties are subject to apportionment in accordance with the rule as stated, and will reopen the case for the purpose of determining that issue if defendant feels that such apportionment could be of any value to it, considering the uses to which the water is to be applied, and the locality where it is to be used.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS ★ ★ ★ ★ PERSONAL MENTION

Socially, a state of absolute quietude prevails in our city, and not for some weeks yet, until the Woman's Club resumes social activities, and the return of society leaders who have been away on vacation trips, may we look for aught save quite informal gatherings.

xx xx xx xx

Friends of the organization are busily "rummaging" during spare moments for contributions to the "Rummage Sale"—an August event for the benefit of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club. Clothing, bric-a-brac, household furnishings, anything, in fact, will be acceptable, you know. The date of the Sale was to have been decided at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Club, and next week complete details will be given.

xx xx xx xx

Although, socially, the week has been comparatively quiet, yet it has not been altogether devoid of pleasure-giving functions.

A bevy of lovely little maids had the jolliest time conceivable, Tuesday afternoon, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler, on which occasion charming little Miss Irma Adler was hostess. Like her attractive mother, Irma is an adept in the art of entertaining, and assisted by Mrs. Adler, Mrs. Julius Fochetti, and Misses Dorothy and Doreles Breitenbach, the petite hostess gave her guests "a perfectly grand time" Games were played, and interesting contests held, prizes being awarded Verna Quartaroli, Evelyn Peterson, Clara Stonier, Evelyn Ward and Mabel Branch. Later, toothsome dainties were served at a very prettily appointed table. From the heart of a glowing bell of scarlet geraniums and greenery, streamers of crimson crepe paper held in position each place card, which when drawn from its hiding place, nestling midst masses of brilliant blooms, disclosed a dainty, tiny doll. Those who enjoyed Irma's "lovely" party were: Lois Appleton, Clara Stonier, Evelyn Peterson, Alice Kehoe, Elizabeth Nunes, Zoleta Clerici, Vera Scott, Mabel Branch, Evelyn Ward, Verna Quartaroli and Master Leland Adler.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. W. W. Hanger, who for a week had visited in this city, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Hanger, departed for her home in Fresno, Thursday afternoon. During her sojourn in our city, the visitor was the motif for a number of informal social afternoons. On Friday afternoon of last week, Mrs. W. H. Hanger entertained for her guest, on Saturday afternoon the visitor was the honor guest at the "At Home," at which Mrs. Henry J. Wicker was hostess, and on Monday afternoon the home of Mrs. P. N. Stofen, on Broadway, was thrown open for the entertainment of a few of the friends of the Fresno visitor. Mrs. Hanger is well and favorably known in Sonoma, having been raised here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Charles, who were pioneer valley residents.

xx xx xx xx

Callers at the local post office during the removal days last week were pleasantly surprised to be served by Mrs. Amelia H. Bates—Sonoma's at-one-time valued postmistress. Mrs. Bates was a capable assistant during the busy days.

xx xx xx xx

Prof. and Mrs. E. L. Michael, with their little daughter Marian, of La Jolla, arrived in Sonoma last week and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons. Last Saturday, Mrs. Michael—who is the sister of Mrs. Simmons—entered the Children's Hospital to undergo an operation. Professor Michael, who is connected with the Marine Experimental Station of La Jolla, has been lecturing this week at the University of California. Little Marian will remain under the care of her aunt, Mrs. Simmons, while her mother is in the hospital.

Miss Mary Springer was among the Sonoma residents to pleasantly spend last Saturday in San Francisco.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Ernest C. Campbell spent Sunday in San Francisco, and was accompanied home by little Miss Florence, who had a week of pleasure with city relatives.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Irene Mullany, of San Francisco, was entertained at the home of Mrs. Grace Granice, Saturday to Sunday. Miss Mullany is an attractive young lady, and a highly accomplished musician.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Henry F. Bates returned from a ten days' sojourn in San Francisco, Saturday evening. The greater part of Mrs. Bates' time was passed at the Exposition. H. F. also visited the Fair a part of last week with his wife and their daughter, Miss Zoleta.

xx xx xx xx

Joe McMullin is spending his two weeks' vacation in San Francisco, going down last Saturday. While in the metropolis, Joe is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Clarence Nauman, and of his friend, Ray Castex. The World's Fair is, of course, the magnet of attraction.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, of San Jose, availed themselves of the opportunity while on a trip to the Exposition, to motor up to this city Saturday last, and enjoy a visit with their Sonoma relatives. Mr. Wilson is a brother to Mrs. S. Carmer, and Mrs. Wilson a neice of Mrs. Wm. Trudgen.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. George C. Husmann, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Louise Hagan, of Little Rock, Arkansas, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Steckmeyer, at El Verano, last week. Both ladies were delighted with our beautiful valley. Mrs. Husmann, who is a sister in-law of Steckmeyer, visited here ten years ago, and was quite surprised at the wonderful improvement and the growth of Sonoma and vicinity.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. H. John Sholden (nee Berenice Small) returned to their home in San Francisco, Tuesday of last week, after a two months' stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Small. Mr. Sholden, who is a first-class artisan, was here to assist A. W. Adler on the machine work of the mill supplies furnished the Bulotti and Post Office Buildings.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Grace I. Granice returned yesterday from a few days' visit with relatives in San Francisco, and while away was the guest of Vallejo friends. On Sunday last, Mrs. Granice entertained among other friends Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stahl and daughter Frieda, Mrs. Mahoney, and Messrs. John and Harry Aden, all of Vallejo. Harry Aden motored to Sonoma in his "classy" racer—a Mercer.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. W. Chambers and sister, Miss Elma Bill, came up from San Francisco, Tuesday evening, and were accompanied by Mr. Chambers, who for the first time since the unfortunate accident which befell him two months ago, is able to leave St. Luke's Hospital. Friends of the family have not forgotten the well-nigh tragic occurrence, when on stepping from a moving train in Mill Valley, Mr. Chambers was dragged as far as a cow-catcher, his right leg being severed so badly as to make amputation necessary. A distressing fact in connection, was that the frightful accident occurred in front of the family home and was witnessed by Mrs. Chambers. Mr. Chambers is progressing favorably and with his wife and their two-month-old son, will visit for a time with Mrs. Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bill.

Robert LaTorres was a welcome home visitor from San Francisco last Sunday.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen entertained their friend, R. Johnson, of San Francisco, Sunday.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Allene Poulson departed for San Francisco, Wednesday, to spend a week visiting relatives and sight-seeing at the Exposition.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler have been spending the past few days in San Francisco, going down to attend the celebration of German Day at the Exposition, Thursday

xx xx xx xx

Don Campbell, who is taking an Agricultural Course in the University of California, visited home folk and greeted his many town friends, Tuesday.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons motored over to Santa Rosa, last Thursday night, where Mr. Simmons inspected and bought his stock for the coming holidays.

xx xx xx xx

Friends—and who isn't the friend of Harold Hotz?—are glad to learn that this popular High School boy is aronnd again. Harold's illness last week was the cause of considerable anxiety.

xx xx xx xx

After a vacation of a month's duration, the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church will resume regular meetings, Tuesday afternoon of next week, on which occasion Mrs. Henry F. Bates will entertain the ladies.

xx xx xx xx

City Trustee and Mrs. Charles McDevitt and family went to San Francisco, last week, to "do" the Exposition. Mr. McDevitt returned after a few days' sojourn, while Mrs. McDevitt and children will enjoy city life a week or so longer.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment and Miss Eugenie Froment, City Trustee and Mrs. Claude Johnson and Master Maxwell Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Heggie and family made up a congenial party to enjoy a day's outing in Nun's Canyon, last Sunday.

xx xx xx xx

Friends of Miss Alta Bish, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bish, will be glad to hear that this popular Sonoma Valley girl is improving very nicely from the operation performed upon her eye, by Dr. J. H. McLeod, the well-known Santa Rosa occulist.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Will Cummings and daughters, the Misses Josephine and Katherine, an Miss Mary Cummings (a sister-in-law) arrived in Sonoma, Tuesday evening, for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Cummings' mother, Mrs. J. Meiser. Before returning to their home in Eureka, the ladies will spend a few days in Santa Rosa.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Caroline Lemoine came up from San Francisco, Tuesday evening, and is a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment. The Misses Antoinette and Marguerite Froment, who are visiting with relatives in the metropolis, are reported by their cousin to be having a most delightful time and will not return home until the latter part of next week.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Horace Appleton is the envy of a number of her lady friends, who are self-reproachful at their unthoughtedness in not realizing the comfort and pleasure to be derived from ownership of the phaeton, presented months ago to the Woman's Club by E. T. Allen. Since her purchase of the equipage, within the fortnight Mrs. Appleton has had the wheels rubber-tired, and now has a decidedly smart "runabout."
